

"How to Create a Pollinator Victory Garden"

Kim Eierman, CH, AOLCP

Founder, EcoBeneficial!

www.ecobeneficial.com

kim@ecobeneficial.com

Recommended Reading:

Aston, David and Bucknall, Sally, Plants and Honey Bees: An Introduction to Their Relationships, Northern Bee Books, 2004.

Buchman, Stephen, The Forgotten Pollinators, Island Press, 1997.

Cullina, William, Growing and Propagating Wildflowers, Houghton Mifflin, 2000.

Cullina, William, Native Trees, Shrubs & Vines, Houghton Mifflin, 2002.

Gracie, Carol, Spring Wildflowers of the Northeast: A Natural History, Princeton University Press, 2012.

Grisell, Eric, Bees, Wasps and Ants: The Indispensable Role of Hymenoptera in the Garden, Timber Press, 2010.

Holm, Heather, Pollinators of Native Plants, Pollination Press LLC, 2014.

Lovell, John H., Honey Plants of North America, The A.I. Root Company, 1926. (1977 reprint)

Mader, Eric, et al. The Xerces Society Guide: Attracting Native Pollinators, Storey Publishing 2011.

Squire, David, The Bee-Kind Garden, Green Books, 2011.

Williams, Paul, et al., Bumble Bees of North America, Princeton University Press, 2014.

Wilson, Joseph & Messinger Carril, Olivia, The Bees in Your Backyard: A Guide to North America's Bees, Princeton University Press, 2016.

Wilson-Rich, Noah, The Bee: A Natural History, Princeton University Press, 2014.

Online Resources:

The Xerces Society

www.xerces.org

Pollinator plant lists by region, fact sheets, research, etc.

Pollinator Partnership

www.pollinator.org

Ecoregional Guides

Lady Bird Johnson Wildflower Center

www.wildflower.org

Native plant database, lists of plants that have special value to bees

National Wildlife Federation

www.nwf.org

Plants for Pollinators: A Collection of Favorites

Sustainable Agriculture Research & Education

www.sare.org

Download:

Managing Alternative Pollinators: A Handbook for Beekeepers, Growers and Conservationists

<http://www.sare.org/Learning-Center/Books/Managing-Alternative-Pollinators>