Fracking - Cindy	Potluck dinner tomorrow	Marriott Sheldon is hosting a summer Food & Water Watch potluck at her home in Ridgewood on Wed, Aug 15th from 6:30 to 9pm. Please let me know if you can attend by signing up on our website: http://bit.ly/NorthJerseySummerPotluck Thanks to everyone who came to the fracking waste ban "Don't Veto" protest outside the Governor's mansion last Tuesday. There were 50 people there from around the state as he drove in for dinner! Our August meeting will be the following Wed, Aug 22 at the Panera Bread on Route 4 in Paramus from 7 to 9pm. There's lots to discuss. We're trying to get local environmental commissioners and public officials to sign on to a "Don't Veto the Fracking Waste Ban" letter to Christie. District 39 and 40 (towns below) are particularly important, so please get in touch with me if you can take the lead on contacting officials in any of the towns below. The letter is here, Public Official Sign-on: https://ws.onehub.com/files/o9tg9mm2 There are also a couple of events coming up on September

Ocean Conservancy’s International Coastal Cleanup is slated for September 15, 2012.	Do we want to conduct an event related to this?
National Public Lands Day (NPLD) Sept. 29, 2012	Do we want to conduct an event related to this?	NPLD is often associated with natural and historic restoration projects like trash pick-ups, invasive species removal and trail building. Thanks to a new partnership with the American Community Gardening Association, NPLD projects may also include harvesting produce, installing trellises and constructing raised vegetable beds and compost bins.
