Mayor – review of the agenda

Asked if there are any comments on the resolutions.

Council Member O'Hagan – they admitted to quilt.

Robert Garibaldi – their attorneys weren't against. This will find its way into their personnel file alone with the release of settlement, we are very fortunate to be where we are at this time. Its as far as we can go. This was sent by Tom after I sent draft to the two attorney's. Was a little surprised with the liberal grounds. It does say to return to active duty upon suspension.

Council Member O'Hagan – should I abstain on McInerney.

Robert Garibaldi – vote yes on Scott and abstain on McInerney

Council Member O'Hagan – asked Chief Jennings to explain about the fire.

Council Member Surrago – environmental representative to come on anti idling.

Closed Session after public meeting.

Council Member Orseck – tennis and the rental of the court they did come back they would like two courts Monday – Friday 9-12 four weeks in July . Think we should do it for $1500 of revenue.

Council Member Surrago – I look out that way all the time and it's open.

Council Member Nogara – residents do use it. I would say no.

Lenora Benjamin – just want to make sure we are in compliance with our ordinance.

All yes and Nogara no

Council Member Orseck – Soccer would like to use the field for rental 5-8 pm $3000.

All agreed.

Council Member Orseck – Eagle scout looking to paint the Gazebo and benches at Wilde park.

All agree

Mayor – possibility we may be asked about a dog park. One place proposed was Veterans park. I think there will be space between the burm and the boarder by whatever field we put in at Faber.
