Review of agenda

Mayor will make some remarks regarding Chris Taylor.

Mayor – four members were present last night with the presentation on the property tax reward program mostly are in favor, they need a minimum number of participants but we need to buy into this and support it with your consent put on the agenda.

Council Member O’Hagan made a motion to move with amending the agenda to include the resolution for the property tax reward program.

Council Member Orseck – give it a try

Council Member Surrago – 2nd

Council Member Nogara – wasn’t there last night was there any arguments, on how it could hurt someone.

Council Member Surrago – it would cost him more expense wise, but the figures were not realistic.

Council Member Nogara – how would it hurt someone if they didn't participate?

Council Member Surrago – he felt he would lose business to ones that participate.

Lenora Benjamin – question was would I look back by not participating? Opportunities were presented various opportunities on a monthly basis, and it doesn't have to be everyone.

Council Member Martin – he puts to onus on the town. We have to keep at it.

Council Member Orseck – it just adds on to what we already do.

Council Member Nogara – I don't see a downside to the program.

Council Member Pazan – how about a business out of a home.

Council Member O'Hagan – they want at least 15 businesses to sign up. If after a month or so and others want to join they can

Council Member Pazan – was the central business district represented. Any caviat for them to join the chamber. Any cost to the borough.

Lenora Benjamin – it will cost the town participation, website, email, and calendar.

Council Member Martin – someone should head this.

Mayor – think we will have another meeting on how to promote the towns businesses.

Council Member Nogara – suggest separate. Not on consent.

Council Member O'Hagan – program we are going to support on the website. He made it clear this is not for everybody.

Robert Garibaldi - 30 day default provision in the agreement

Resident on Emerson – why

Motion made by Council Member Orseck to close the work session

Seconded by Council Member Surrago

All in favor
