Jacqueline Scalia, Borough Clerk – present

Council Member Orseck – Met last night with Mark and Lenora to talk about pool, shack and recreation, pool badge sales start April 1st. We also spoke about lap swim and the Wyckoff YMCA and the use of pool. They did pay us $4,200 last year for six weeks for lap swim. We had a petitions signed by 36 people last year. We sent a letter to the people that signed the petition and received four responses to the letter. Think we need to make a decision on that. We have to be consistent with things that generate revenue. We are talking about 6 weeks and lap swim is open for 14 weeks. Mark suggests that Monday, Tuesday and Thursday we be open for lap swim 1 hour in the evening from 8:00 – 9:00 pm.

Lenora Benjamin – Monday night we were open for adult swim.

Irene Brown – why aren't you just doing it for only the 6 weeks.

Lenora Benjamin – we had request for additional adult swim

Irene Brown – that would just be adding more expense.

Mayor – suggested trying to put something on paper

Mrs. Mc Kenna – asked if the 8:00 to 9:00 at night is in addition the morning.

Lenora Benjamin – yes not replacing

Council Member Surrago – asked Garibaldi about the land use pledge

Council Member Orseck –at the meeting last night football has given $600, Soccer gave $500 and Baseball gave money to the family of the house that burn last week.

Motion made by Council Member Orseck to close the executive session

Seconded by Council Member Nogara

All in favor.
